

EL PASO CORPORATION
Pipeline Group
Operations Services
Plant Services
01/01/2010

Director, Plant Services

Directs the technical support activities related to the plant assets in the areas of engine and compressor reliability including automation.

Consultant, Plant Services

Provides strategic technical direction for plant related assets through analysis and implementation of global remediation strategies utilizing plant engineering related skills.

Consultant, Engineering

Provide strategic technical direction for the pipeline related assets through the analysis and implementation of global remediation strategies utilizing engineering related skills.

Manager, Plant Services

Manages the technical support activities related to the plant assets in the areas of engine and compressor reliability including automation.

Engineer, Principal

Provides advanced technical support for the pipeline related assets through the analytical evaluation of facilities and data utilizing engineering related skills.

Specialist, Plant Services-Principal

Provides advanced technical support for the pipeline related assets through the analytical evaluation of facilities and data utilizing experience and advanced specialized skills.

Engineer

Provides beginning level technical support for the pipeline related assets through limited analysis and evaluation of facilities and data utilizing engineering related skills.

Manager, Mechanical Testing

Manages the technical support activities related to the plant assets in the areas of engine and compressor performance and emissions testing and compliance.

Supervisor, Plant Services

Supervises the technical support activities related to the plant assets in the areas of engine and compressor performance and emissions testing and compliance.

Supervisor, Mechanical Services

Supervises the technical support activities related to the plant assets in the areas of engine and compressor performance and emissions testing and compliance.

EL PASO CORPORATION
Pipeline Group
Operations Services
Plant Services
01/01/2010

Planner, Mechanical Testing-Principal

Provides near term and long term planning and scheduling of resources to accomplish the emissions and performance testing of the Mechanical testing Group. Reviews incoming test request documents and assesses the resource needs (equipment and personnel). Also, maintains the readiness of our portable equipment inventory and Maximo, the company's work management system for all compliance issues related to Mechanical Testing responsibilities as well as facilitating the contracting of outside emissions testing services.

Engineer, Senior

Provides technical support for the pipeline related assets through the analytical evaluation of facilities and data utilizing engineering related skills.

Superintendent, Reliability

Supervises the technical support activities for the El Paso Pipeline System related to the plant assets in the areas of engine and compressor reliability including automation.

Specialist, Plant Services-Senior

Provides technical support for the pipeline related assets through the analytical evaluation of facilities and data utilizing experience and specialized skills.

Specialist, Plant Services

Provides beginning level technical support for the pipeline related asset through the analytical evaluation of facilities and data utilizing experience and specialized skills.